PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Dear Friends,

It is raining and hot as I write this. I hope all of you have been taking proper cautions on these hot days, heat stroke is no joke.

Your board met in late June and discussed a number of things which I will relate to you and bring you up to date.

1) There was a wonderful picnic and shoot at the Log Cabin Shop on August 7. We look forward to making this a yearly event again.

2) There will be a one day buy, trade and sell show at the Franklin County Fairgrounds in Hilliard on October 1. This will not be a flea market and only antique, or reproduction, muzzleloading arms and accoutrements will be acceptable. Table costs are $25 each to members and $30 each for nonmembers. Show hours at 9 to 5 and set-up is available Friday evening. No powder or live ammo will be allowed in the hall. This event has been posted on our Facebook page: <https://www.aolrc.com/news> and on the American Longrifles site under upcoming events: <https://www.americanlongrifles.org/forum/>

3) It was discussed/decided that the Association will participate with the OGCA at their November 19 & 20 show at the Roberts Center. We are also looking at the future KRA and CLA shows. We feel this will put us in front of more potential members than our show alone will generate in several years. The OGCA is trying to resurrect a black powder and antique arms presence. These efforts will require volunteers for the tables. Consider volunteering. While we are talking shows, don't forget to support Liza Kindig's show at the Log Cabin Shop in Lodi. I've been to a few of the events and Liza does a great job. October 7 & 8, be there.

4) As everyone is aware, we've been spending money without many fund raisers. In light of our present condition and looking forward, we have decided to start charging for tables in an effort to offset costs at Marietta. We will be going back to Friday, Saturday & Sunday with a carving station on Friday evening. The Friday buffet will be $10 per person, except children under 12. Tables will be $25 each. Tables at other shows are now running from $50-$95 each so we feel this is still a bargain. Dinner on Saturday is to be determined cost wise. We are also looking for demonstrators for Marietta. Any thoughts, let the board know.

5) We are always looking for raffle items and door prizes. Look around and see if there is something you can live without. I will start this with an original pen and ink of a mountain man by Jim Bruner. Jim was from Missoula, Montana and passed away many years ago.

I know I've missed something, but I've bent your ears long enough. If you have comments or thoughts about these or other items, please contact me or any of our board members.

Looking forward to seeing you at our events,
Mark Herman
President, AOLRC
