PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Dear Friends,

That time of the year is almost on us again, Marietta to be exact. I hope everyone received my email, which included a table and dinner reservation flyer. If you did not you will find another reservation form in your newsletter.

The primary change this year will be the buy trade sell aspect from individual tables. This was discussed previously and implemented for the first time this year. Table will be identified as "display only" or as having items for sale. THE TABLES WILL BE LOOKED AT CLOSELY SO THIS DOES NOT BECOME A FLEA MARKET. YOU WILL BE ASKED TO REMOVE INAPROPRIATE ITEMS FROM A SALE TABLE. In an effort to reduce some of the costs related to the show, ALL tables will cost $25 for the weekend. Set up will start after 3 on Friday.

There will be a carving station on Friday evening the cost of which will be a donation. Saturday's plated dinner will be $31 per person which includes tax and service charge, no gratuity is included. After dinner Bill Reynolds will present a review of a book he helped publish, THE PIONEERS.

The ladies of the AOLRC will hold their annual silent auction again this year and will be glad to receive any donations. Contact or see Barb Harwood.

Our featured gun maker this year will be William Bodenheimer of Fairfield county. If you have a Bodenheimer rifle, bring it along. We will have several craftsmen doing demonstration throughout the weekend.

The AOLRC had a display table at the November OGCA show in Wilmington and we were nicely received. We are contemplating doing this several times throughout the year and will look forward to you, the members, helping out, whether as a helper at our table, or a guest. Your support will be appreciated.

I want to take a moment to thank our board of directors for their support over the past year at Hilliard, OGCA and Canter's Cave. With both the Board's and your support we will continue successfully into the future.

Respectfully, Mark Herman
